POSITIVE PROOF

Should Convince the Greatest Skeptic in Barre.

Because it's the evidence of a Barre citizen.

Testimony easily investigated,
The strongest endorsement of merit.
The best proof. Read it:

Q. W. Brown, carpenter, of 11 Brook-street, Barre, Vt., says: "Since I gave my first statement recommending Doan's Kidney Pills some eight years ago I have never failed to advise their use whenever occasion has arisen. I had stained myself and it affected my kidneys and weakened my back. I paid little attention to it at first, but my back kept getting worse and worse and there was considerable difficulty with the kidney secretions, which were highly colored and very annoying especially at night. I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at E. A. Brown's drug store.
After I had taken them a few days I noticed the pain in my back was not so bad and the kidney secretions were becoming more natural. I continued using Doan's Kidney Pills until entirely free from my former troubles. Since that time I have used them on different occasions when I have suffered from slight attacks and always with success, and I have recommended them to others time and time again. In the case of a friend who was suffering from a bad case of kidney trouble the use of this remedy absolutely cured him."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMurray Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's —and take no other.

ARMY NOTES.

The Norwegian army has an expert skating corps.

No man who refuses to be vaccinated or revaccinated can enlist in the British army.

An English correspondent at Peking declares that no other army in the world has such incompetent officers as the Chinese.

The German volunteer army corps is provided with thirty-seven automobiles, in charge of uniformed drivers, which carry staff officers to and fro.
During the recent maneuvers the speed and convenience of the machines were highly praised by the tacticians.

A Long Train.
The train of the dress worn by Catherine de Medici on her marriage in 1533 with Henri, second son of Francis I, king of France, measured no less than forty-eight yards in length and was carried by ten pairs of pages.

Cured of Lung Trouble.
"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 125 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night.
Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at the Red Cross pharmacy, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

FORECAST OF THE MODE.

Furs For Wear Once-Consumes For Afternoon and Evening.

Splendid imitation ermine coats for the wee ones, trimmed with tails to look like the real skins, are made of coney fur and may be bought for $35.
Tweed coats will also be favorites for the children. They are exceedingly plaid with velvet—5503, 5175.

pretty, for they are a good white, and the wool seems especially appropriate for the babies.

A crepe de chine blouse has a bolero effect of coarse Irish lace and a deep pointed yoke of Valenciennes outlined with applique of shaded flowers.

A charming afternoon gown is of old rose voile, with masses and masses of wee tucks like lingerie work and a trill of satin ribbon of the same exquisite shade.

A lovely and unusual hat is of pale gray cloth edged with the same colored velvet and two large shaded gray feathers across the front. It is raised at the side to show ribbon choux in pale mauve, blue and pink tones.

An evening gown of light yellow ni-lon has a broad band of satin at the foot and a satin edged fichu. This year women's umbrellas are smaller and the silk so fine that they can be rolled up into a very small compass.
The mulberry colored umbrella with a handle of mother-of-pearl is very new and fetching. On the knob the owner's pet name is set in diamonds.

There are smart short skirts made of material guaranteed not to shrink when wet. The fabric is chemically treated to shed water.

The pretty plaid costume illustrated is trimmed with black velvet ribbon.
The chemise is of lace, or all over embroidery is an excellent substitute.

JUDIC CIOLETT.

GOWN GOSSIP.

Many cloth suits in rather vivid reds are seen. These are usually worn with black lynx furs and a black lynx or black beaver hat.

Lace is worn on hats quite as much as it was last year, particularly Irish lace, which often covers the entire hat over a foundation of cloth of silver.

Few of this season's chapeaux could correctly be called simple, while the way many of them combine materials and colors is nothing short of marvelous.

A garment very much admired is the fur pony coat. This little coat comes just below the waist line and if made of striped fur has the stripes perfectly matched.

Nine out of every ten hats one sees, it is safe to say, display somewhere in their makeup an ostrich feather, even if it be only a very tiny one almost hidden in the mass of illusion at the back or peeping over the brim at the side from under an avalanche of algrets and other plumage.—New York Post.
